

Your Church Is Unique

Vital questions for congregations

No other congregation is in your place—your context, your community—so only you can ask yourselves these questions.

Who is our neighbour?

How can we make our buildings welcoming?

Who are we?

Do we need so many committees?

What are we doing to reduce our energy consumption?

What is our purpose?

How can we increase givings?

Have we identified all our assets for ministry?

What is God calling us to be?

To help you with the conversations that will happen as a result of these vital questions for congregations, check out the resources on the back...
