1. Je - sus in - car - nate, born as a hu - man, One who was raised to live by God's way;
2. Je - sus spoke clear - ly, told truths still with us, God's reign is o'er us, 'round us, be - fore;
3. Je - sus stayed stead - fast, e'en when as - sault - ed, Pow - er he si - lenced, ha - tred he banned;
4. Je - sus con - tin - ues liv - ing a - mong us; We know his spir - it shows us God's love;

Je - sus showed to us God's ver - y es - sence Giv - ing to this world hope for each day.
We must be faith - ful in all our ac - tions If we shall serve all those at our door.
Then his dis - ci - ples, ran to find cov - er, Je - sus him - self still fol - lowed God's plan.
Neigh - bours and stran - gers, fam' - ly and loved ones, Need to know God is 'round us, a - bove.

He knew that jus - tice, peace and true free - dom Would com - bat sor - row, hearts would be buoyed.
Man - y an in - sight Je - sus once ut - tered, Told those who gath - ered love is the norm;
His life soon end - ed, cru - ci - fied, bur - ied, Hid from the mas - ses, a - ban - doned man,
Je - sus in - spires us, moves us, trans - forms us, Through him we learn that hope is di - vine;

He fed the hun - gry, healed those once ail - ing, Freed those held cap - tive, love he em - ployed.
Par - a - bles, sto - ries, new to the list' - ners, Gave truth new cloth - ing, gave God new form.
But, one fine morn - ing, he rose in glo - ry, Show - ing us all that God by us stands.
Je - sus taught hum - bly, show - ing us clear - ly, God's love is spe - cial, it's yours and mine.
