Standing with God in Hope

My friend Carol wondered what triggered me to choose this topic of 'hope'. She said, "Should hope be part of a Christian's vocabulary?" Faith, trust, love, service--yes! But hope? She thought that was a rather weak word. We can only hope. Non-Christians use that all the time.

But wait, Hope is the first candle of Advent. We are reminded to hope.

From Jeremiah 29:11, we read, "...for I know the plans I have for you", declares the Lord, "plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future". The word hope means to have an optimistic or positive state of mind; to believe that something good will happen. There are many promises in the bible that say we can hope in God. Hope, the faith that God does have plans for us, and that they are good indeed. To have hope you need to have faith and to have faith you will have hope. For any single story in the bible, hope is an important component of the journey.

AN INVITATION TO PRAYER We invite all United Church Women to include in your weekly prayers a message of hope and healing for our world and its people. Add your own personal concerns of care to this list. Share with us a concern of importance to you for inclusion in future Invitations to Prayer

God of HOPE, guide us in prayer for your people that we may give what is most needed to help and to heal, no matter how difficult, so that we may banish evil, end war, create and rebuild to bring people together in love and safety, with critical needs fulfilled.

Korea Peace Appeal 10,000 Signature Campaign

The goal is for the United Church of Canada to collect 10,000 signatures by August of 2022. It's a very simple sign-on process, and there are some great educational resources available on the website as well.

Your Connection as UCW:

You likely know that United Church Women have had a long relationship with women in the PROK (Presbyterian Church in the Republic of Korea). There were guests from the PROK at the UCW anniversary event in Vancouver. In the early 90's there was a UCW Korea Peace Ribbon campaign, a solidarity project with the women of Korea to mark the 50th anniversary of the end of the Japanese occupation of Korea and hopes for reunification. It would be fantastic for the UCW to once again support those peace efforts.

Thanks for your consideration!

70 years is enough. End the Korean War.

That's the message of the recently launched Korea Peace Appeal, a global campaign that seeks to collect 100 million signatures by 2023, the 70th anniversary of the armistice. The United Church of Canada has been challenged by our Korean partners to add 10,000 Canadian signatures to the petition. As I write, we have 24 days until the kick off of the 60th UCW Anniversary “Continuing in Hope” We have sold and sent out 2050 pins — Those that ordered with their registration will receive them in their welcome packet. We will have a few to sell at the celebration and will take orders to be sent out once we deplete our supply.

As I write, there are registrants getting their mani/pedis, getting their last-minute haircuts and checking on the details of all things UCW 60th.

They're coming by plane, car and ferry! By all accounts people are excited to start this adventure! We have people arriving from as early as July 8th right up until 4:15 PM, just in time for dinner on the 11th, with someone scheduled to meet you all at the airport to guide you to your hotels.

Pack for the weather — in Cape Breton it can be 11 degrees or 25 degrees.

Pack your sand (if you were asked to bring it along).

Pack your sunglasses for the tour. Pack your raincoat just in case.

Pack your medication (we're going to ask you for a list).

Pack your masks but if you forget, Marilyn Rodger will have some for sale.

Pack your money. There are books and trinkets and gifts to be bought.

Bring your smiles, your singing voice, and your good vibes.

Bring your appetite — Maritimers like to feed people, so be prepared to eat, sing, play and pray.

Who would have thought? After hurricanes and floods, wildfires and drought, a war and a pandemic, who would have thought we would have the chance to get together?

Yet, here we are! See you in Sydney. Safe travels!

REGIONAL UCW NEWS

Horseshoe Falls Region (HFR) UCW

Members from the former Erie Presbytery stand with the new Horseshoe Falls Regional Banner in front of the communion table at the beautiful St. Paul's United Church, Dundas ON

- New Horseshoe Falls UCW banner will be presented this July at the UCW 60th Anniversary celebration in Sydney, Nova Scotia - Banner creator is incoming President, Marilyn Johnston. The banner will travel with members of HFR UCW who are attending the conference.
- Truth and Rights – Justice and Right Relations - Guest Presenter: Marilyn Johnston, incoming HFR UCW President, herself an indigenous woman, gave an insightful and eloquent presentation and shared her experiences from her visit to Sandy Lake First Nation and spoke of their struggle with accessing clean water.
- Celebrating United Church of Canada's 97th Anniversary (June 1925 – June 2022)
Rev. Robert Lawson, President Horseshoe Falls Regional Executive Council and worship leader for the HFRUCW Annual General Meeting, brought attendees back in time with the photo from the big meeting on June 25, 1925 at Mutual Street Arena, Toronto, which heralded the beginning of our church at the Act of Union.

Rev. Lawson told the story of his grandmother, who claimed she was there on the day. Rev. Lawson has poured over the photo looking for her, but does not think there were too many women present, because of the lack of hats evident in the picture! Rev. Lawson did stress that women were indeed present, but likely in the more traditional ways we know the women of the church to have always been present --preparing the meal for the meeting, fundraising, champions for many causes and being present in a myriad of other ways.

As you look at the photo below it is a sobering thought to think how far within our church structure the role of women has evolved. All this time the UCW, coming from the WA and WMS traditions, has been present, working to support the work of the church and stepping up for noteworthy causes and campaigns.

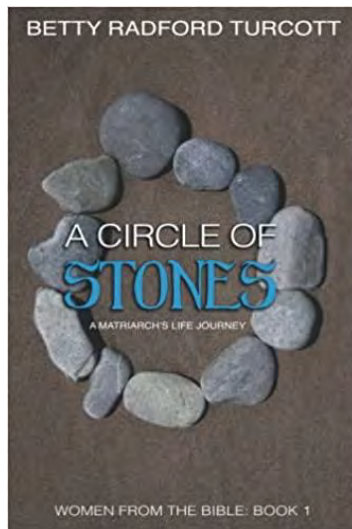

Mutual Street Arena - Toronto - June 25, 1925

Phyllis and Wanda have shared that at church [St. Andrew's in Vittoria and at Neal Memorial United] on Trinity Sunday, a special focus was placed on the church's 97th Anniversary and UCWs 60th Anniversary. Inspired, Wanda created lapel stickers depicting church and UCW crests which were given out. Wanda will share the label file so you may use them for your own church and UCW purposes as you wish. Labels will print to Avery label #5160.

A Circle of Stones

“Just as she brought biblical women to life in her book, And She Said, Betty Radford Turcott has done it again with Sarai/Sarah whom we follow from her birth to her death. We are drawn into the amazing life of this great leader and healer of women, journeying with her as she gathers her special stones along the way.”
Pat Gilmore. Director, Grand River Books. Paris, Ontario

“In this novel, Betty weaves tender stories between husband and wife, mother and child, and friend to friend, making A Circle of Stones a circle of love. It is a story of one woman's remarkable journey. The rituals and ceremonies lift the human spirit and model a way for women to celebrate who they are.” Gloria Nye Author of the Dragonfly Novels.

Thank you for your interest and support.

Betty

Bay of Quinte UCW East Central Ontario On-line Book Club with Betty Turcott

Betty Radford Turcott's latest book, A Circle of Stones, gave Bay of Quinte UCW East Central Ontario Region a wonderful opportunity to form an online book discussion group. Tuesday evenings in March, we met by Zoom to share and deepen our experience of a book that brings to life the story of Sarai and Abram. When Betty joined us the final week, we gained insight into her writing experience, the character of Sarai and the support and wisdom that Sarai, and we, receive from women met along life's journey.

Meeting for an hour, one night a week for four weeks, was good for our group. Each gathering began with a check-in on the week's focus: sisterhood in your life, a word or phrase to name God, a 'stone' or memento you cherish. With 17 in the group, we used breakout rooms of 4 - 5 people, each with a leader. A planning team developed discussion prompts for each week, but A Circle of Stones is a many-layered novel and we never ran out of things to discuss. After the allotted hour each week, many chose to stay on to talk and the group became a circle of sisters in itself.

Typical comments: “I liked the breakout rooms. It was good that everyone had a time to have their say.” “The general focus on personal experience I found refreshing.” “Betty Turcott holds a dear spot in my heart, as she does with others as well. What a blessing to be able to call her friend and have her join the group to discuss her book.” And many asking: “When can we do it again!”

UCW Individual Membership – Count Me In!

National UCW has approved the UCW Individual Membership. This membership is for women who no longer have access to a local Community of Faith UCW Unit.

Just as when a United Church closes, all members of the congregation are still members of The United Church of Canada; so too, when a UCW Unit closes the members are still UCW women within their congregations and the wider church.

Each year the Local Community of Faith UCW Units complete a "Statistics Sheet" to report membership numbers, names and contact information for key Executive positions, and the names of women blessed to receive a Life Membership Pin and Certificate. Later this year the new statistics form will also give the option to include the number of UCW women in each Area, Region/District who register as "Individual" members.

Enroll for Individual Membership

You are important to us! If, as a UCW woman, you are living your purpose in your community of faith, but may not have access to an active UCW Unit, reach out, sign up, and be counted!

Contact your Area, Region/District UCW to request a form. You will be asked to provide your contact information and the ever-important email address. A UCW Executive member will then share information about upcoming events within UCW locally and nationally, and you can request copies of the National UCW Newsletter, Keeping in Touch, to stay connected to other UCW women.
