

Do you feel called to share your skills and gifts with global partners and their communities?

Co-workers in Mission

are adventurous individuals who live, work, and worship alongside Mission & Service global partners for 2+ year terms.

Do you feel called to share your skills and gifts with global partners and their communities?

Co-workers in Mission

are adventurous individuals who live, work, and worship alongside Mission & Service global partners for 2+ year terms.

Join with People in Partnership in building connections around the world.

Co-workers are one of four streams of service that link people and communities of faith, working together in God's mission to realize a dream of peace, justice, and care for creation. They are ecumenical officers, skilled specialists, chaplains, professors, community workers, teachers, program designers, and ministers. Co-workers serve for 2+ year terms and are salaried positions.

To learn more about Co-workers and the other streams of service, contact the People in Partnership team at

pip@united-church.ca

or explore what opportunities currently exist at

www.united-church.ca/opportunities

People in Partnership is one of many dynamic and engaging Mission & Service programs of The United Church of Canada made possible by generous gifts and contributions.

Join with People in Partnership in building connections around the world.

Co-workers are one of four streams of service that link people and communities of faith, working together in God's mission to realize a dream of peace, justice, and care for creation. They are ecumenical officers, skilled specialists, chaplains, professors, community workers, teachers, program designers, and ministers. Co-workers serve for 2+ year terms and are salaried positions.

To learn more about Co-workers and the other streams of service, contact the People in Partnership team at

pip@united-church.ca

or explore what opportunities currently exist at

www.united-church.ca/opportunities

People in Partnership is one of many dynamic and engaging Mission & Service programs of The United Church of Canada made possible by generous gifts and contributions.

